Adjusting to Charlotte: What to Expect

What You Might Feel:

- New campus, new systems = temporarily overwhelming
- Different academic expectations
- A need to rebuild your support network

What We Want You to Know:

- You're not alone—many transfer students feel this way
- It's temporary—most students adjust by the end of the first semester
- You're not starting over—you're building on what you've already achieved
- Support is here - we're ready to help you succeed!

Tools for Transfer Success at Charlotte

Maximize your credits

Use your support system

Build your network

Maximize the Credits You've Earned

Send official transcripts from every college or university you've attended.

- Before classes begin → send to Undergraduate Admissions
- After classes begin → send to the Office of the Registrar

Earned an Associate Degree from a NC community college?

- Make sure your final transcript shows the degree was awarded
- Example: Associate in Arts awarded on [date]
- ⚠ General education exemptions can't be granted without this!

Maximize the Credits You've Earned

Submit test scores (AP, IB, Cambridge, CLEP, etc.)

- Scores must come directly from the testing agency (e.g., College Board)

Majoring in a program with a foreign language requirement?

- If you completed 3 levels in high school, send your high school transcript to Admissions

Think a course should count differently than listed?

- Talk with your academic advisor
- Use the Academic Petition for Transfer Credit Evaluation or General Education review.

Utilize Your Support System

Not sure about something? Ask Questions!

Advisors are here to help you make the most of your credits.
